Return to Larry Carter, 4101 APM, within 24 hours of talk.
Fax's accepted: 858 822-1559

Did the speaker explain the context and importance of the work?
(Please give a number in the range -3 to +3. -3 = no motivation, +3 = well-motivated)

Did the graphs make sense? (-3 = I didn't understand them at all, +3 = completely clear)

Did you feel there was enough/too much information presented?
(-3 = not enough, 0 = good amount, +3 = too much)

How much of the talk did you follow? (-3 = none, +3 = all)

Did you get more out of what was said or what was shown?
(-3 = 100% voice, 0 = both equally, +3 = 100% visual)

Could you read the slides? (-3 = not at all, +3 = everything)

Where did you sit? (-3 = far back, +3 = far front)

Please describe any techniques used by the speaker that you felt were particularly effective.

And/or any that were particularly annoying.

Did you feel excited by the talk? (-3 = I fell asleep, +3 = Wow!)

Would you want to do a research project under the speaker (on a topic that interested you, not necessarily what the talk was about)? (-3 = absolutely not, +3 = definitely)

Should we try to hire this person (please answer even if they aren't applying)?
(+3 = no way, +3 = absolutely)

Please give a one-sentence summary of the most important content of the talk.

Give a short "sound bite" that one could use to answer the question, "So what's the speaker's claim to fame, anyway" (e.g., "She's invented the Program Dependence Graph" or "He designed the most efficient multicast protocol")

Please use the back for any additional comments (including ideas on what else I should ask about)
