CSE 102: File and Storage Structures   Integrity of Scholarship Agreement

Each student is responsible for knowing and abiding by UCSD's policies on Academic Dishonesty and on Student Conduct. Any student violating UCSD's Academic Dishonesty or UCSD's Student Conduct policies will earn an 'F' in the course and will be reported to their college Dean for administrative processing. Committing acts that violate Student Conduct policies that result in course disruption are cause for suspension or dismissal from UCSD.

The following is an excerpt from the UCSD General Catalog section on Academic Dishonesty:

ACADEMIC DISHONESTY

No student shall engage in any activity that involves attempting to receive a grade by means other than honest effort, for example:

1. No student shall knowingly procure, provide, or accept any materials that contain questions or answers to any examination or assignment to be given at a subsequent time.
2. No student shall complete, in part or in total, any examination or assignment for another person.
3. No student shall knowingly allow any examination or assignment to be completed, in part or in total, for himself or herself by another person.
4. No student shall plagiarize or copy the work of another person and submit it as his or her own work.
5. No student shall employ unauthorized aids in undertaking course work.
6. No student shall, without proper authorization, alter graded class assignments or examinations and then resubmit them for regrading.

The following are additional examples not listed in the General Catalog specific to programming classes:

7. No student shall provide his or her assignments, in part or in total, to any other student in current or future classes of this course. No student shall procure or accept assignments from any other student from current or prior classes of this course.
8. All programing code and documentation submitted for evaluation or existing inside the student's computer accounts must be the student's original work or material specifically authorized by the instructor. The course accounts are authorized for course work only.
9. Collaborating with others to develop, complete or correct course work is limited to activities explicitly authorized by the Professor. Use of other student's course work, in part or in total, to develop, complete or correct course work is unauthorized.

Authorized course assistance is available in person and via email from the Professor, Teaching Assistants, and OASIS.

By signing this form, I, ______________________ print name, a student enrolled in CSE 102, understand and will abide by the above policies. I will seek authorized assistance when I need help. I will keep a copy of this agreement for future reference. I have provided a signed copy of this agreement to the Professor.

Signature	Student ID	Date
	login	